Wayne Barsky

Wayne Barsky, partner in the Century City office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, is National Co-Chairman of the firm's 125-lawyer Intellectual Property Practice Group. He specializes in patent litigation for clients in the computer, software, life science, pharmaceutical, and medical device industries, and is frequently retained in high-profile cases.

First profiled more than a decade ago in California Law Business as one of the leading lawyers in California under the age of 40, Wayne has since been named as one of the top thirty intellectual property lawyers in California by the Daily Journal, and one of the top 500 trial lawyers in the country by LawDragon. Wayne is a past Chairperson of Public Counsel Law Center, and serves on the Executive Committee of its Board of Directors.

Wayne has served as a member of the Board of Governors of the Association of Business Trial Lawyers, the Board of Directors of the Western Law Center for Disability Rights, and as a judge pro tempore in the Los Angeles Superior Court system. He is a former chair of the National Intellectual Property Institute for the Corporate Counsel Institute, and is on the Planning and Executive Committees of the USC Intellectual Property Institute. Wayne has received a Commendation from the California State Bar in recognition of his considerable pro bono activities.
